Why choose Croatia?

The Republic of Croatia is a country with an unleashed potential with a new market for tourism and a growing number of new and innovative medium sized businesses. With its fast growth, high quality of life and high skilled workforce, Croatia gained an important economic role in Southeast Europe.

Grant Thornton International

Grant Thornton provides comprehensive services in the areas of auditing, accounting, tax advisory, management and transaction advisory. Grant Thornton has been active on the market since 1924 and today is the seventh largest organization of its kind in the world.

Grant Thornton's objective in Central and Eastern Europe is to significantly strengthen the consultancy segment. In the area of management advisory in these countries, we intend to be our clients' first choice of consultancy firm, and our long-term plans are to work towards making Grant Thornton the number one consultant in the region.

Grant Thornton Croatia

In order to support you in the best possible way, we combine many years of international experience with knowledge of the local market gained by more than 20 years presence in Croatia.

The key to our success lies in the personality and expertise of our employees and partners, while our relationship with clients is based on a personal approach and trust. With Grant Thornton you will have a personal consultant on hand whenever you need advice, and not an anonymous team.
