Once amongst the wealthiest nations, immigrants from all around the world continue to rely on Argentina for their family's future. Hard workers valuing quality of life and education opportunities daily weave a multicultural modern society welcoming sophisticated products and ideas. Argentina is finally fighting its most significant battle, the elimination of a last-longing deficit in the balance of payments which will in turn reduce inflation levels. With its vast territory, variety of climates and huge natural resources, record agricultural and beef exports, large infrastructure works spanning roads, railways, ports and airports, digital government and procurement transparency, and an attractive exchange rate, now it is a time of opportunity, the time to invest in Argentina
